Further information

The campsite rules posted at the campsite must be followed without exception and will be supervised by the groundskeeper.

At regular intervals, the groundman checks the campsite, is available for questions and collects the fee for the planned duration of stay in advance according to the valid tariff. Campers and visitors have to prove their identity by presenting an official identification document (e.g. identity card, passport). Independent site selection at your own risk according to the site plan is permitted.

The groundskeeper is on site daily from 8:30 am to 6:30 pm.
